LL Tells It's Side of Controversy

PAVEMENT EATER—The street surface and sidewalks on Main Street disappeared in huge chunks as work began on the renovation of the city's Central Business District. In two days the street and sidewalks were removed from building line to building line. Progress has been right on schedule on the project earmarked to be completed about the first of July. ### Main St. Work on Schedule

Progress in the early stages of the Main Street redevelopment has been right on schedule with only minor problems, according to City Engineer Roy Stephenson.

He added that the project has been "well received" by the public. Very few complaints have been registered in City Hall about the inconvenience the work has caused.

Stephenson urged that motorists not use Main Street in its present condition although there have been no attempts to keep cars off the street. He said one problem is that vehicles have been knocking down surveyor stakes and the surveying has had to be repeated.

"It would be very helpful if people would park on the fringe streets and walk to and on Main Street," Stephenson said.

After the street and sidewalk pavement was removed, the east side of the street became a gigantic mud puddle as a water line broke. All buildings along the street were without water for about a day and one half.

The Yorba Linda Water District hurriedly constructed a temporary pipeline along both sides of the streets and restored service as quickly as possible.

The new water mains should be installed, tested and chlorinated by the end of this week, Stephenson said. Survivors are expected to be finished this week and the laying of curbs and gutters will get underway.

All underground electrical for various types of service is on the schedule the next few days. Early next week the irrigation lines and appurtenances for landscaping will be installed.

The water company will then move back into the area and set meters in their new locations. Grading and paving of the street surface will follow. It is hoped, said Stephenson, that Main Street will be operational for traffic and parking by mid-May.

While foot traffic to merchants had declined, it has picked up a bit in the past few days as shoppers have become used to the conditions.

Ewing Pay Hike Dangles

Whether salary for Carolyn Peirce Ewing, former mayor of Yorba Linda and presently executive director of the Orange County division of the League of California Cities will jump from $12,000 to $17,500 a year was still undetermined this week.

Mrs. Ewing had submitted a budget to the League recommending an increase in pay for herself and an expense account of $200 per month, almost 46 percent above her present salary.

The vote on the budget at the League of Cities meeting on April 14 was defeated for lack of a simple majority. The matter will be further pursued at the May 12 meeting.

Placentia representatives were absent for the vote and Yorba Linda voted yes. The vote was 9 yes, 5 no, 3 abstain and 9 absent. Other cities voting yes with Yorba Linda were Buena Park, Fountain Valley, Huntington Beach, La Palma, Orange, Stanton, Tustin and Villa Park.

The budget it approved would increase each city's levy assessment from 2 cents per capita to 3 cents. Placentia would pay $939 instead of $803.

The Placentia City Council, however, Tuesday night indicated in response to a question from League representative, Councilman Jack Gomez that it does not wish to support Mrs. Ewing's fulltime position with increased salary. This would indicate that Placentia would vote no at the next League meeting on that portion of the budget.

Also cited by Mrs. Ewing in budget notations is that she and her secretary do not receive retirement benefits, vacation schedules, and medical and life insurance opportunities.

Among duties listed for Mrs. Ewing are liaison duties with State League officials, response to a 90 person mailing list and providing representation at Orange County Supervisors' meetings.

It has been suggested that the 3 cent assessment be kept for two years or longer.

Mrs. Ewing's present post is part time.

Rumor Mill "Kills" Mom

Mrs. Ellen Robertson who lives on Sandra Drive in Yorba Linda had the unsettling experience last week of being rumored as "dead."

She asked the STAR to assure everyone that she is "very much alive" and "thank you."

Robertson said that she believes the rumor started in a neighborhood because of a death in the family in Virginia.

The rumor reportedly came in contact with her, "I couldn't keep it the appointment because of my aunt's death," Robertson feels that when her son said "daddy" using the "d" sound it was mistaken for "mom."

This apparently started a chain of phone calls eliminating in the rumor that Mrs. Robertson had been killed in an auto accident.

Anti-Crime Unit Here

Det. Don Rogers, liaison officer for the Brea Police Department in Yorba Linda, announced that the Community Service Aides (CSA) of the Quad City Crime Prevention Unit will be working in Yorba Linda for the next few weeks.

The Quad City Program, a federally funded one-year grant, encompasses the cities of La Habra, Brea, Buena and Yorba Linda. Its objective is to reduce burglary by training residents of various security methods.

Residents of Yorba Linda should be aware that the CSAs offer residential security checks as a community service and will be happy to engrave valuable property with the owner's drivers license number.

Persons who have any questions about the program or who would like to set up an appointment for a home security check should call the Quad City Crime Prevention Unit at 973-8225 weekdays between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Visitor Vexed by Litter

A visitor to Yorba Linda recently dropped into the STAR office to express his pleasure at the town but also to lodge a mild complaint.

Elmer W. Johnson, 68, from 18 Sp. Way, Brea, said that he had just had a picnic in Seattle and Spokane, he explained.

The picnic, he continued, said he was impressed with Yorba Linda and was also with the amount of litter he saw on streets and in parks. As I have seen a lot of the past few days I have been walking around the area at least six times a day. Elmer said Johnson was in town because his son had come to Esplanade Hospital to have an operation.

Final Plan for Unification

This is the first in a three part article outlining the "Final Plan for the Proposed Yorba Linda Unified School District" as prepared by the Orange County Committee on School District Organization for presentation to the State Board of Education.

The State Board will hold a public hearing on the Plan at 1:30 p.m. on May 12 in Sacramento. The article includes the narrative of the Plan but does not include maps, charts nor non-essential material in the Plan. Editor.

For California State Board of Education
FROM: Orange County Committee on School District Organization

SUBJECT: PROPOSED YORBA LINDA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

The governing board of the Yorba Linda School District has requested that the Orange County Committee on School District Organization study a plan to form the Yorba Linda Unified School District from that area comprising the Yorba Linda School District.

Yorba Linda is an elementary school district completely surrounded by two unified school districts. It is the lowest wealth district of the five component districts in the Fullerton Joint Union High School District. It is not contiguous to the remainder of the high school district and the high school students from the area must be transported 8-10 miles, one way, across Placentia Unified School District to reach Trow High School, where they attend classes.

The unification of this area would remove approximately 14% of the land area of the assessed area and 8% of the students from the Fullerton Joint Union High School District.

Several attempts at reorganization have been made in past years, the most recent of which was an attempt to annex to Placentia Unified School District. However, Placentia and the Fullerton Joint Union High School District were unable to reach a financial agreement for the proposed action.

Although the projected 1978-79 ADV of just under 4,000 pupils is smaller than most districts in Orange County, the Orange County Committee on School District Organization feels circumstances warrant presenting this measure to the voters. In addition, although the tax base is relatively small, the new district would operate within one of the highest revenue limits in Orange County.

Should a successful unification election in this area be held on March 7, 1978, the Orange County Committee on School District Organization recommends that the master plan for Orange County be amended accordingly, namely that the remnant Fullerton Joint Union High School District be master planned to unify along high school district lines when initiated.

This plan is submitted by the Orange County Committee on School District Organization as provided in Chapter 10, Division 5 of the Education Code, (E.C. 3201). The Orange County Committee on School District Organization hereby adopts and recommends a plan to establish a unified school district to be known as the Yorba Linda Unified School District, effective for all purposes July 1, 1979 upon submission for approval by the registered voters in the territory to be contained within the proposed district to be held on March 7, 1978.

Sincerely,
Hal Mason, Secretary to the County Committee

The following is a news release from the Yorba Linda Little League furnished to the STAR by Bob Hill, umpire-in-chief and publicity director for the League. It was released with the knowledge of League President William Hervig. The release was prepared to counter what league officials contend are conflicting articles in the press which give the public erroneous and confusing information concerning the league's law suit against the City of Yorba Linda, the Yorba Linda School District, the County of Orange and 100 John Does. It is herewith published exactly as received. Editor).

For more than a decade the parents, friends and citizens of the city of Yorba Linda have built, maintained and raised money for a 10.5-acre baseball site adjacent to Yorba Linda Junior High School.

Nearly all the labor was done by parents and volunteers, and the result was a "diamond" facility, outfitted with the finest and safest equipment for the youngsters of the town to play Little League baseball.

Now, a tangled web of events spanning the last three years has placed the Yorba Linda Little League, 1200 kids strong, at the mercy of the city fathers.

The Yorba Linda City Council, by virtue of a joint management agreement with the city school district, is claiming full administrative authority as well as ownership of the facilities.

The Little League has responded with a complaint for declaratory relief against the city and its school district, an effort to insure the little leaguers of playing time in the fields which their parents paid for and built for them.

Since 1964 the league has been leasing the site for a minimal fee from the city school district. The leasehold provided that the school district would give an unequivocal 60-day notice to the league in the event that the lease was to be terminated.

The 90-day notice was intended to give adequate time for the league to remove all and any improvements constructed on the site. Moreover,

Statement by Mayor

Although regarding the lease agreement as not in force, Mayor Doug Groot announced that it is the consensus of the City Council that the Yorba Linda Little League be permitted to operate, i.e., the remainder of the season through the lease was in force.

He said this will allow the league to continue with the games already scheduled. The league will use its 1976 Varsity facilities until they are prepared to last Sunday, the first of June, after which the city will be allowed to have their own program.

The mayor announced at July 31 that the city and the Little League had agreed to give 90 days to remove improvements with the exception of improvements at that time as set by the league desires.

the document also required the league to obtain permission to abandon any facilities on the site.

The lease requires the school district to notify the league, via registered mail, of any intentions to terminate the lease," affirms Fred White, a Placentia attorney who is handling the claim for the league. The notice was never served properly according to Little League officials.

In July of 1971, the City of Yorba Linda entered a joint management agreement with the school district. In 1974, the city assumed full administrative power over the site.

The city then informed the league that a lease was not necessary and that the league could have use of the

YLLL Meeting

Yorba Linda Little League urges all members to attend a very important informational meeting on Tuesday, May 3 concerning the current situation between the Little League and the city of Yorba Linda in regard to the use of our ball fields. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the multi-purpose room at Bernardo Yorba Jr. High School.

field as needed throughout the course of its playing season.

The Little League, however, desiring protection of their interest in the leasehold, sent a check in accordance with the terms of the old lease to the school district.

The school district accepted the funds, but after the dispute over the field surfaced, they returned the money to the league claiming that the lease had expired and that the league had abandoned the facilities on the site.

The school district contends that the league had abandoned the equipment by virtue of the failure to remove it from the site upon termination of the lease.

The Little League alleges that the lease was never, indeed, terminated. No one had ever given proper notice as required by the terms of the original lease.

In addition, the city continued to allow the league to maintain the facility with its own volunteer help, and to pay for repairs, upkeep and improvements on the site.

All of this was done in accordance with the original lease which required the league to maintain the field at its own expense. The league

Unification. . .

Had the proposed unified district been formed during the 1976-77 school year, the district would have ranked 11th in size among 12 unified school districts of Orange County with a K-12 A.D.A. of 3,711.

DISTRICT Yorba Linda

1976-77 K-8 ADA 2,511
1976-77 H.S. ADA 1,200
1976-77 TOTAL ADA 3,711

Education Code Section 3100 provides that unified districts may be formed with an ADA of 5,000. Although the ADA of the proposed district is slightly less than 5,000, there are extenuating circumstances and the Orange County Committee on School District Organization judges the proposed district warrants special consideration because of other circumstances detailed in the cover letter contained herein.

FINANCIAL ADEQUACY

The proposed district would be formed from the least wealthy component district of the Fullerton Joint Union High School District. Despite some variation in assessed wealth behind each student among the five component districts, it should be pointed out that a more significant measure of financial ability is an analysis of the revenue limit per ADA.

The revenue limit of the present elementary districts is 5.27% below the average of all districts in the area. The assessed value is 29.42% below the average of all districts in the area. The California Administrative Code Title V regulation allows a deviation of 15% or less in either category. The new revenue limit per ADA would be $1,439.35 and the net maximum tax rate would be $5.1410 per $100 in assessed valuation. The proposed district is therefore judged to be financially adequate based upon anticipated additional income from other sources—state apportionment and/or local income.

ADEQUACY OF COMMUNITY IDENTITY

The Fullerton Joint Union High School District encompasses five component elementary districts with a total of approximately 49 square miles with the major portion lying within Orange County. The area proposed for unification contains approximately 10% of the area, or slightly over 5 square miles.

The area has a strong community identity, with no high school within the boundaries. It is an island completely surrounded by two unified school districts.

EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY

1. Real property shall be appraised at current market value by a certified appraisal firm to be selected by the County Superintendent from a list submitted by each of the involved districts. Real property shall remain the property of the district in which it is located, but valued and charged on the basis of the average daily attendance ratios. (ED 16302)

2. Improvements shall be appraised at current market value by a certified appraisal firm to be selected by the County Superintendent from a list submitted by each of the involved districts. Improvements shall remain the property of the district in which it is located, but valued and charged on the basis of the average daily attendance ratio.

3. Personal property shall be appraised at current market value by a certified appraisal firm to be selected by the County Superintendent from a list submitted by each of the involved districts and distributed according to the distribution method described in the following pages; except that one district may choose to accept a lesser portion or greater portion of the personal property to offset charges or credits against that district because of an imbalance in real property, or improvements. In case of disagreement, the Orange County Committee on School District Organization shall determine the portion to be so considered. (EC 3258 (b))

4. Bonded indebtedness shall be assigned to each district on the basis of the average daily attendance ratio except that one district may choose to accept a greater portion of the bonded indebtedness to offset charges against that district because of an imbalance in real property, or improvements, as mutually agreeable to all parties. In case of disagreement, the Orange County Committee on School District Organization shall determine the portion to be so considered.

5. Undistributed reserves, general reserves, appropriations for contingencies, accounts receivable, surpluses, and balances in all funds, including, but not limited to the general fund, cafeteria fund, cafeteria accounts, building fund, state school building fund, public school building fund, bond fund, special reserve fund, and all other funds, not specifically covered elsewhere by California statutes, shall be calculated as of July 1, 1979, and credited and distributed on the basis of the average daily attendance ratio. Funds and monies specifically provided for in the Education Code, including, but not limited to student body funds, shall be handled in accordance with existing law. Prior years' tax receipts as well as unsecured tax receipts shall be distributed on the basis of the average daily attendance ratio, except that one district may choose to accept a lesser portion or greater portion of the funds listed in this paragraph to offset charges or credits against that district because of an imbalance in real property, or improvements. In case of disagreement, the Orange County Committee on School District Organization shall determine the portion to be so considered. In any disagreement regarding the equitable distribution of property and funds, until all funds have been satisfactorily distributed, the Orange County Committee on School District Organization shall serve as the final arbitrator. Cost of appraisal shall be prorated and paid on the basis of the average daily attendance ratio.

Chino Hills Resurfaces

A tandem roller has been at work for the past several days on the newly resurfaced streets of Chino Hills. The streets, which were repaved by the City of Chino Hills, are now open to traffic. The project was completed ahead of schedule.

The action to resurface the streets was initiated by the City of Chino Hills in March to assist the State Parks and Recreation Department in its efforts to improve the area.

Letters To The Editor

Controls Needed

Dear Editor:

I am writing in response to Mrs. Truman's "Irate" letter regarding the Animal Control Questionnaire. I agree that the questionnaire should have included cows, pigs, chickens, even dogs and cats.

However, I applauded its intent—to discover whether people were satisfied or dissatisfied with large animal control.

Mrs. Truman states that as a member of the Mayors task force she recommended that Yorba Linda have its own animal control shelter with the power to levy a fee in order to inspect large animal units.

I don't care how it's done, I only feel that there is a definite need for someone to control the flies, smells, manure piles, etc. since some owners of animals won't do it on their own.

Regarding "discrimination against horse owners" by requiring licenses, automobile licenses, drivers licenses, bicycle licenses, drivers licenses, bicycle licenses for years without the cry of discrimination.

Life Lost in Blaze

The severely burned body of James Sterling Fox, 20, of 4472 Casa Oro Dr., Yorba Linda, was discovered by firemen Friday afternoon in the blazing garage at his home.

Fox was the son of Yorba Linda School Superintendent Dr. Sterling Fox.

According to police reports, a neighbor, David C. McCormell, 19, of 1311 El Cajon, saw "large clouds of white smoke" coming from the detached garage shortly after 2 p.m., accompanied by the sound of several explosions.

McCormell reportedly ran to the front entrance of the garage, finding the door locked, he began spraying the structure with a garden hose while his mother called the fire department.

Upon arrival at the scene, fire personnel broke down the door of the building and found Fox's body inside next to the west wall.

Fox was alone at the residence at the time of the fire.

Police Beat

Thursday, April 21

Freda Retires

Freda Oelke of Yorba Linda began her career with the Orange County Health Department in 1952 as a public health nurse. Now, after approximately 25 years of distinguished service, she has decided to hang up her nurse's cap and pursue the rewards of retirement.

Freda obtained her nurse's training in Missouri at the Saint Louis Hospital School of Nursing (RN) and in California at UCLA (B.S. and M.S.P.H.). She can look back with pride upon her accomplishments in Public Health. Following four years as a PHN she was promoted to supervising PHN, then to Educational Director and finally in 1967 to Director of Public Health Nursing.

Her professional affiliations include: Directors of Nursing Association, California Public Health Association, California conference of Local Health Department Nursing Directors, Critical Care Nurses Association and UCLA Alumnae Association.

The Oelkes, Freda and Frank, have a fair sized farm in Illinois where they plan to indulge in some gentleman farming. Frank has managed an Orange grove in Escondido during his retirement years and Freda is a farm girl at heart.

Freda expects to pursue her varied interests when she goes back to her home state, Illinois. She loves to sew and to grow things and will take a more active role in the Daughters of the American Revolution and in her church.

Freda will be missed by those she knew in the Health Department, the County, the city and the State. All that know her wish her well in retirement and will long remember her as a good nurse and a good friend.

Debra Lugo Takes Part

Airman, First Class Debra M. Lugo, participated in a U.S. Readiness Command joint forces training exercise conducted in the Ft. Hood, Tex. area.

Airman Lugo, a ground radio equipment repairman at Bergstrom AFB, Tex., with the 67th Tactical Reconnaissance Wing, was among regular and reserve Air Force and Army personnel taking part in the air and ground maneuvers. The exercise provided joint training in the air movement of ground forces, management of air space over a combat zone and close air support techniques. Such exercises are designed to insure that U.S. based forces are "ready" when and if the U.S. Readiness Command is directed to reinforce other U.S. unified commands.

Fiesta Days Fun, Funds

Tickets were paid and the pockets were bare, but imaginations ran rampant at Yorba Linda Service League's "Fiesta Days" party Saturday, April 23, at the Alta Vista Country Club.

Had each year in support of Fiesta Days, this year's idea was selected because of the date which had been chosen and attire ran from black tie to potato sack with some people wearing a bit of each.

Others were just delighted to be able to wear an "old favorite" and be right in fashion with the theme.

Dance music was provided by The Pat Zen Quartet, directed by Bob Beardsley. It was upbeat and lively and party goers joined in with great enthusiasm.

Also contributing greatly to the success of the event were the door prizes awarded throughout the evening. Local merchants were once again very generous with donations.

The grand prize, a weekend in San Diego's Vacation Village, was given by Patti and Ken Westlund at Yorba Linda Travel and was won by Jan and Gordon Strickland of Yorba Linda.

Other contributors from Main St. included Yorba Linda Hardware, Wagon Masters, SAS Rags, Hal Waterbury of Viking Lighting and Paint, Joaquin's, The Crafters, and Oak 'n Things.

And from Lakeview Center: The Book Shelf, Hang It All Plants and Jack Meyers at B and B Pharmacy.

The Country Club area was represented by Village Hardware, The Plant Lady and Don Sisson of Chalet Liquors. In addition, Wine-man's Department Store Carley's Plants and Touch of the Seasons at Town Center in Placentia also gave prizes.
